Sir,

I have the honor to report that the Dewan was pleased to inspect the block of houses to the South of Ambavilas on the morning of the 13th instant and to direct the acquisition and removal of 10 houses to the South of Krishna-Swami temple and of 5 houses to the South of Venkataramanaswami temple.

The usual declaration under the Land Acquisition Act for the acquisition of these houses, was sent up with this offin no 614 dated 18th instant, for publication in the Mysore Gazette.

In the marginally noted Proceedings of Government, grants were made from Provincial funds for the acquisition of certain houses close to the Palace. As the houses in question have also now to be acquired for the same purpose, the
